

Bata

Batas help
things grow.

Grow and grow
and grow!

Batas are a big
help in the garden.

Once, a
bata tried
to make a
rock grow.

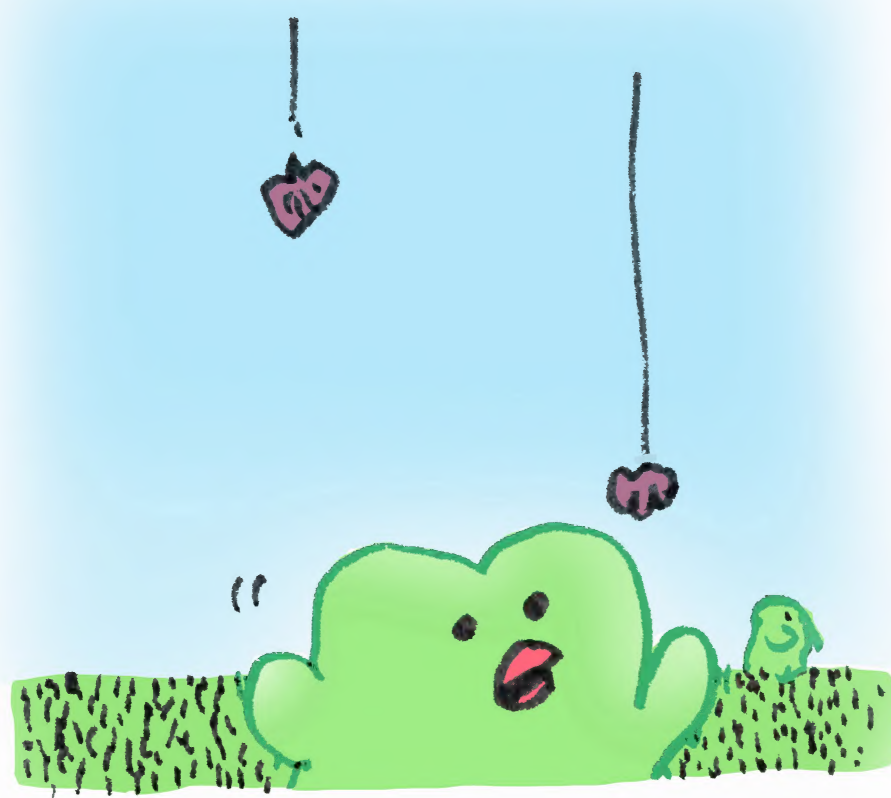

Nothing
happened.

Flying poopdragons
help fertilize the ground.

Look out, batas!

Batas are very friendly.

Which doesn't always
work out.

This bata does
the carrot dance.

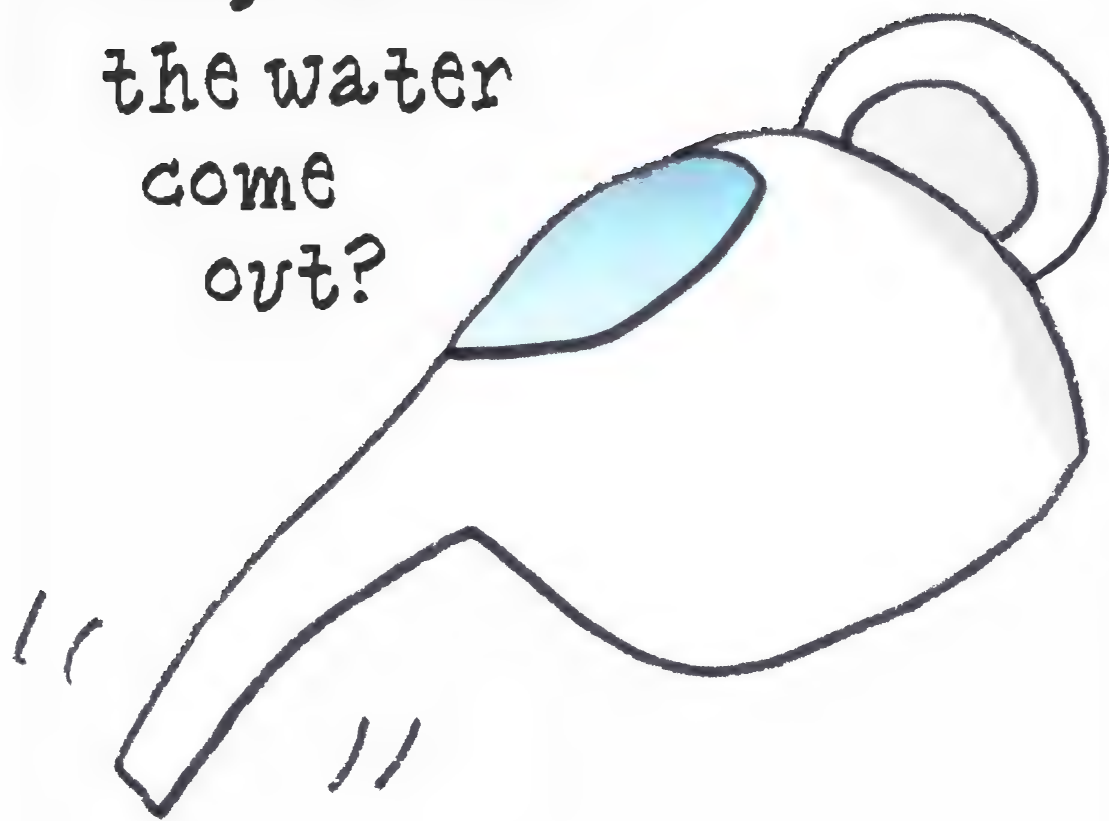

Best
acorn.

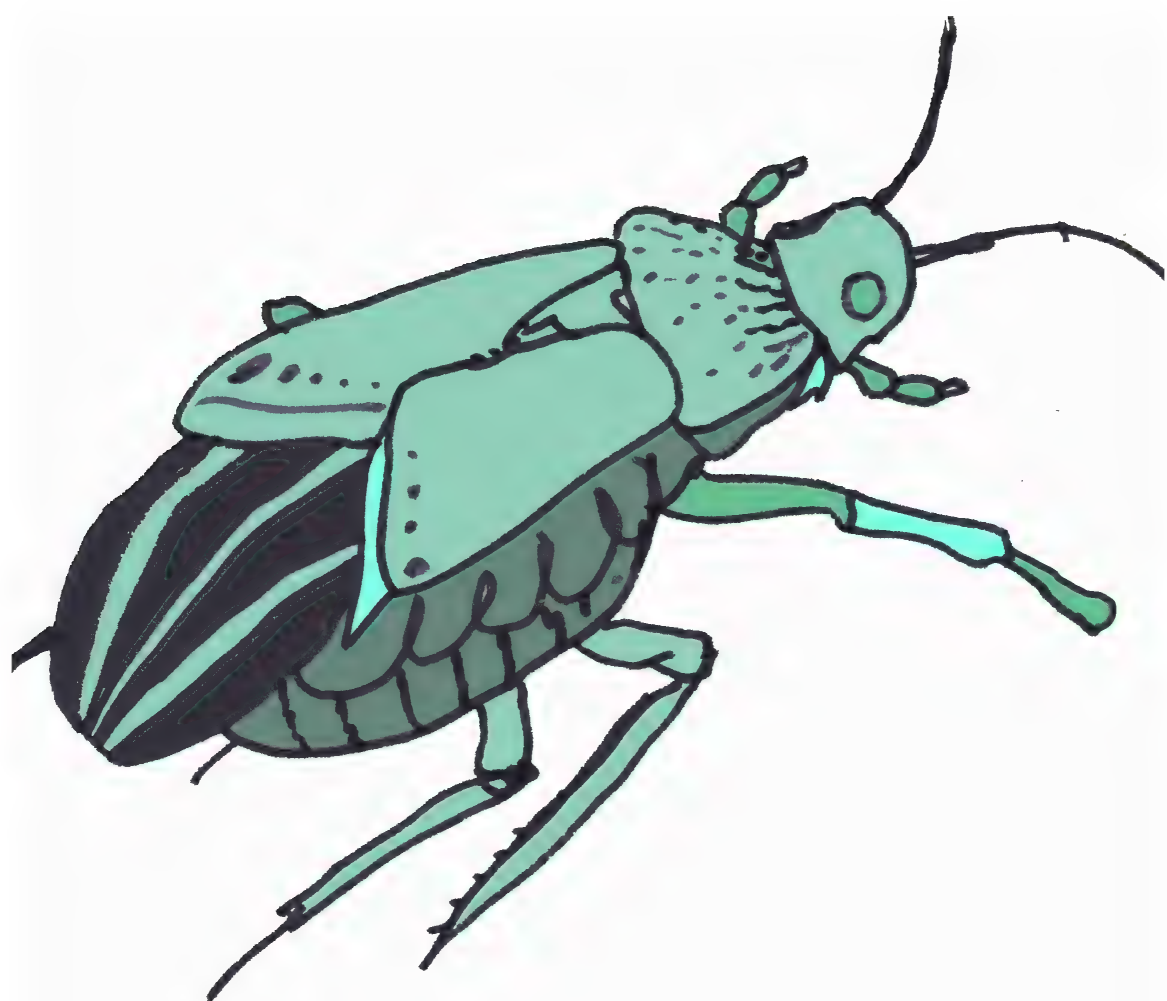

Why won't
the water
come
out?

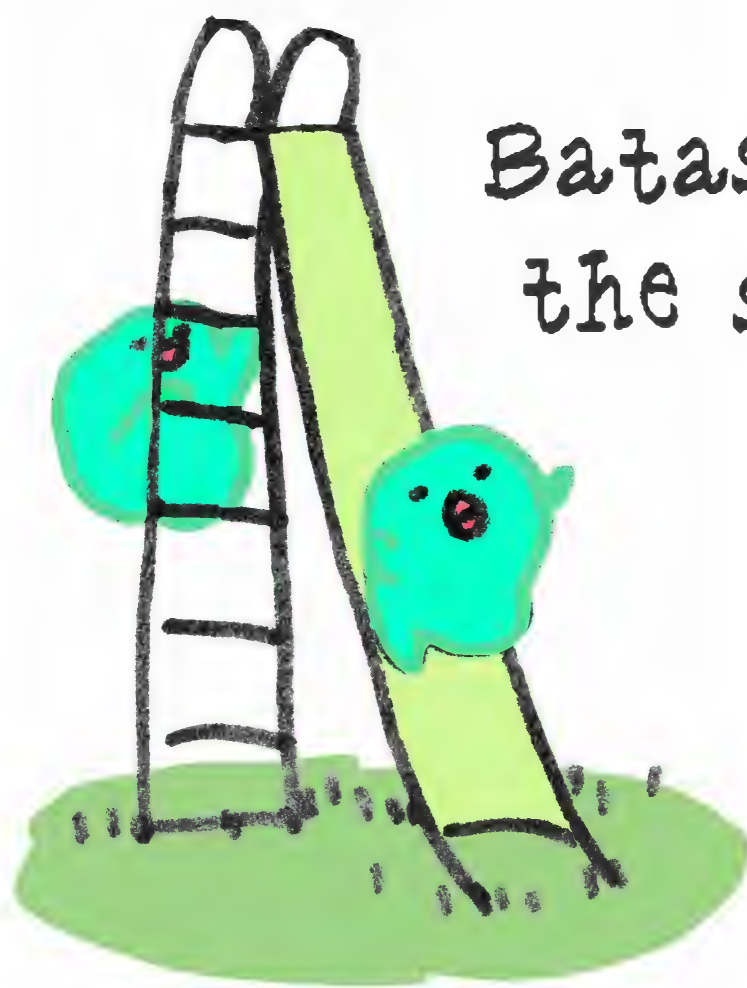

A bata was stuck in
the spout!

Batas are afraid of bugs.

Batas like
the slide.

They keep the flowers
company in winter.

Apple inspection.

Batas help
caterpillars

become butterflies.

This bata is friends
with a bird.

And this one's
b.f.f. is a toad.

Batas wake up
the new seeds...

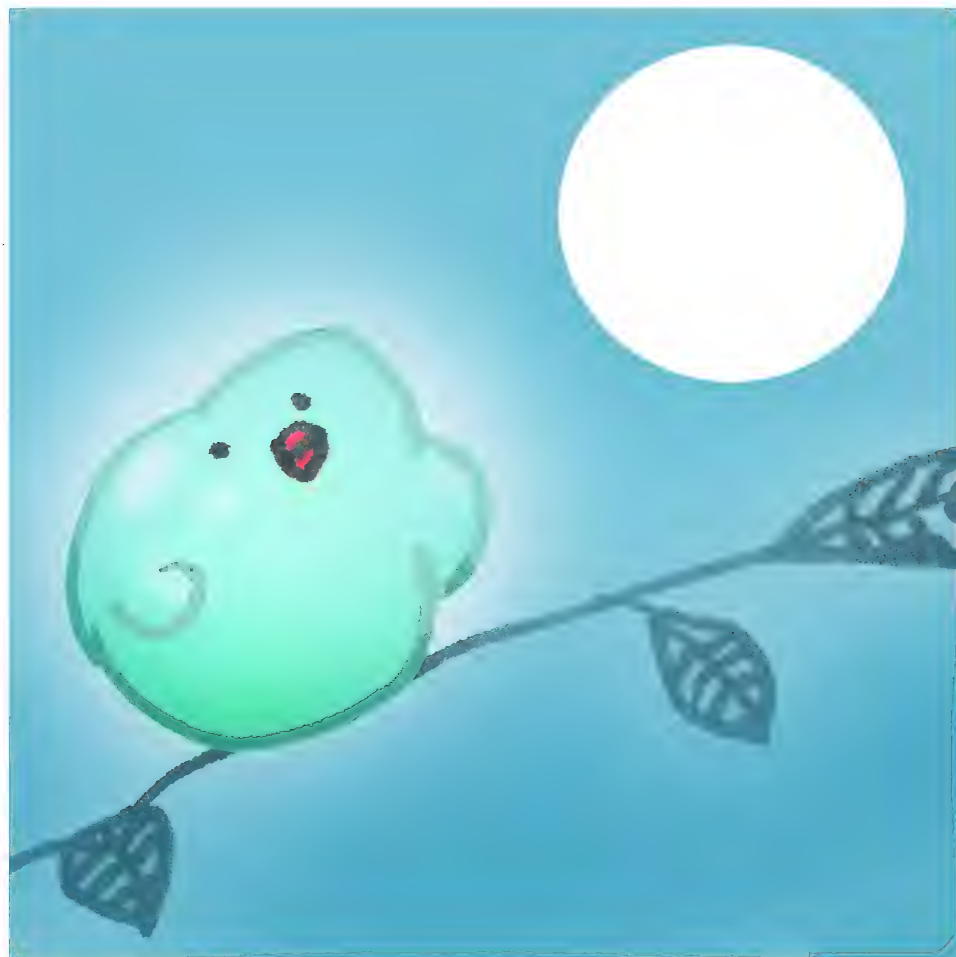

... and watch over
them as they grow.

Batas love the sun.

They love the moon, too.
